

Ken Baker

Consulting Director, Environmental Sustainability
Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games (VANOC)

Ken Baker is the Consulting Director of Environmental Sustainability with the Vancouver Organizing Committee for the 2010 Winter Olympic and Paralympic Games (VANOC). This follows his role as Executive Director of Environment and Sustainability with the Vancouver 2010 Bid Corporation from 2001 to 2003, a member Canada's team that won the global competition for the rights to host the 2010 Winter Games. He provides leadership on environmental innovation and impact reduction to over 50 VANOC functions working hard to stage an extraordinary Olympic and Paralympic Games in February and March 2010.

Mr. Baker has worked for 34 years in the management and conservation of natural resources in the province of British Columbia, Canada primarily through his provincial public service career. Until July 2005, he was a senior executive with the Government of British Columbia, serving most recently as Assistant Deputy Minister with the Ministry of Sustainable Resource Management, responsible for land and resource planning in the province.